Hold Up Manager Of Antioch A&P

William Farmer, manager of the Antioch A & P, was held up and robbed of about $1,000 in the store's parking lot in the Antioch Shopping Plaza last Friday afternoon.

The hold-up took place at about 2:30 p.m. The parking area was busy at the time and many shoppers were in the area. Apparently, Farmer said, no one noticed the hold-up.

Farmer was bringing cash from the bank for the Friday night rush of business. He said two men wearing stocking masks held a gun on him and took the money.

Farmer said the men drove away with a 1966 or '67 Ford and he got the license number. Police found that the car had been stolen from Great Lakes.

No Competition Yet For Township Office

Lloyd "Red" Murrie is still the only candidate for the office of Township Supervisor who has filed a petition with the township clerk, and Blaine Ring is the only candidate, at present, for the office of Township Road Commissioner.

First date for filing the petitions was Jan. 9. Last date is Feb. 13.

Ray Toft, Mayor of Antioch, says he is still undecided as to whether or not he will try for the post of Township Supervisor at this time. "I'd like to, but I'd like to finish out my term as Mayor," Ray said. "I can't do both."

Chamber Forms New Committee

Jerry Babb, newly-elected president of the Antioch Chamber of Commerce is instituting a new committee as one of his first acts as Chamber president—program committee, with Dale Starkey as chairman.

The program committee will coordinate the activities of the various committees and projects for the year.

In regard to the Chamber's increased emphasis on participation by the industries of Antioch, Mr. Babb pointed out that rates for industry were adjusted downward in 1966, and would not be lowered further at this time. Several Antioch industries are members of the Chamber, with Pickard Inc., the most recent to join.

A 13-year-old Lake Villa girl was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital in fair condition last Wednesday after being hit by a car on Route 59 at Lincoln Drive. The girl, Denise Kolar, was crossing Route 59 to her mother's car when she was struck by a car driven by Glenn Mitchell of Rt. 2, Antioch.

Meeting Furthers Jubilee Plans

A decision will be made next Monday as to whether or not Antioch will employ the services of the Rogers Co. to map out events for Antioch's celebration of its Diamond Jubilee.

Sid Eckdahl, a representative of the promotion company appeared for the second time before representatives of Antioch civic clubs and village officials to discuss the plans. He will return for a third meeting next Monday, Jan. 30, at 7:30 p.m. at the village hall.

At next Monday's meeting, Eckdahl will present a rough format of a celebration he believes will be suitable for Antioch, and disclose the cost.

Tentative plans include a five- or six-day celebration, climaxed by a historical pageant. This year is Antioch's 75th year as an incorporated village.

Mayor Raymond Toft invited anyone interested to attend next Monday's meeting.

Quaker Booth Destroyed By Fire

Quaker Industries, Inc., of Antioch, was one of the firms whose display was burned out in the disastrous fire at McCormick place. Quaker's booth was located only four aisles from the origin of the fire.

A spokesman for the firm said, "We can be thankful that this disaster did not occur during the show hours. The large crowd in attendance would no doubt have resulted in great loss of life."

An item in the Quaker News, a periodical put out by the company for its employees, told of the excitement in the Sales Dept. over the coming Housewares Show. The item mentioned some of the new products Quaker would have on display and said, "We are enthusiastic about the forthcoming National Housewares Show, as this year we will present our line of merchandise in a completely new display booth which will enhance our prestige among the giants of the industry."

Quaker's Sales Department is now ready to go on the road and present special showings of the merchandise they had hoped to exhibit at the show.

January Thaw Fools Robin

Maybe it won't last, but the balmy weather that prevailed in Antioch this last weekend even fooled the birds.

Richard Ohlgren of Pelter's subdivision reports that a robin joined the many birds that congregated around his feeder last Sunday.

The robin is certainly the first that has been reported in the Antioch area. He was fat and happy, reports Mr. Ohlgren. In event of snow, he can depend on the Ohlgrens' food supply. They have a variety of birds calling at their feeder daily, including some warblers.

Insurance Firms Merge

The 112th annual meeting of the Millburn Mutual Insurance Co. was held Saturday at the Millburn Masonic Temple.

Donald Truax of Millburn was elected president of the company. Other officers elected were Stanley Faulkner, Gurnee, vice president; Robert Denman, Millburn, secretary; Howard Bonner, Millburn, treasurer.

Mr. Truax replaced Carl Hughes as president. Hughes has been associated with the company since 1929, many years as treasurer and the last three years as president.

Ralph Gwaltney, Grayslake, and Thomas Andrew, Caledonia, Ill., were elected to three year terms as Directors. The other two directors are Robert Irish, Wadsworth, and Ralph Tekampe, Mundelein.

Mr. Gwaltney replaced Frank Cremen of Grayslake, a director since 1944. Because of their many years of service to the company, policy holders asked that Hughes and Cremen be appointed to serve the board in an advisory capacity.

Also during the meeting, it was voted to merge with the Alden Mutual Insurance Co. of Hebron. The merged firms will retain the name of Millburn Mutual, the Millburn firm absorbing the Hebron firm.

People's Party Slate Files For Village Board

A slate of three candidates running under the label of the People's Party, has filed petitions at the Antioch village hall and will run for the three spots on the village board.

Irving Walsh, incumbent, Richard Radke and Richard Burnette make up the People's Party slate. The terms of David Nissen, Roger Williams and Irving Walsh end at this time.

Dave Nissen has said he will not run again. He has served almost two full terms on the board, being elected the first time to fill an unexpired term. Nissen said he has enjoyed his years on the village board and it has been a great experience. He's busy with his work, he said, and feels he has served long enough on the job.

Williams, although we were unable to contact him, has also reportedly said he would not run again.

Walsh has served one term on the village board. He is chairman of the Salaries committee, and is a member of the following committees: License & Licensing, Finance & Audit, and Insurance.

Richard Radke, 493 Orchard St., Antioch, is a member of a long-time Antioch family. Radke's Barber Shop has operated on Antioch's Main St., for 70 years and was started by Dick's grandfather.

Dick is 35 years old. He and his wife, Louise, have two children, Michelle, 11, and Keith, 6. Dick's parents lived in Waukegan for seven years when Dick was a child, then moved back to Antioch and again took over Radke's Barber Shop. Except for four years service in the Navy, from 1952 to 1956, Dick has spent his adult years as a barber in his father's shop.

He's a graduate of Antioch Grade School and Antioch High School, a member of the Lions Club, sponsors and bowls on a team in the Thursday night Businessmen's Bowling League, and is a member of Antioch's first zoning board.

Richard Radke

If Dick wins election to the village board, he will have to resign his position on the zoning board. "I've lived in Antioch all my life, am a businessman here and am interested in the welfare of the town," Dick said. "That's why I'd like to be on the village board—to do what I can to see that things are done that need to be done."

Gibbs & Jenssen Branching Out

Ray Jenssen, of Gibbs & Jenssen, Inc., on Lake St., has announced that they will be opening a new store in the Antioch Shopping Plaza in May.

The new store will be an enlargement of their ladies wear line. The present Gibbs & Jenssen carries both ladies' and men's wear in addition to sports equipment of all kinds.

Charles E. Gilliland, who also heads the Flora Savings and Loan Association of Flora, The League is the Statewide trade organization serving over 500 savings and loan associations in Illinois.

The purpose of the Permanent Reserve Committee is to consider matters bearing a direct relationship to the operation of savings and loan associations which issue permanent reserve shares.

Labor troubles will not be settled by one side defeating the other.

The present store on Lake St. will continue to carry the stock they now feature, with most of their ladies wear being of the sports variety. The new plaza store will feature a complete line of women's wear and accessories.

"The way that Antioch is growing I think there's plenty of room for another ladies wear store," Ray Jenssen said. Also, this will give us more room to display our stock. Now, we have almost as many clothes in the basement as we have on display."

The new store will be at 474 Orchard St., between Antioch Drugs and Orchard Cleaners. It will be 2,800 square feet, about the size of the Gibbs & Jenssen Store on Lake Street.

ACHS Teachers To Get Pay Hike

A raise for teachers at Antioch Community High School was approved by the Board of Education last Wednesday night.

The new salary schedule adopted by the board raises the starting salary of teachers with a B.A. degree from $5,400 to $5,600. A 5% or $200 raise the second year is provided in the schedule, increasing in ten steps to a top of $8,120.

Other salary provisions are: for a B.A. degree plus 15 semester hours, a starting salary of $5,824, increasing in thirteen steps to $9,184; Masters degree, $6,048, increasing in fifteen steps to $9,968; an M.A. plus 15 hours, 6,272, increasing in sixteen steps to $10,472; an M.A. plus 30 hours of study, $6,496, increasing in seventeen steps to $10,976.

Other changes in the salary schedule approved by the board was approval of payment of $250 a year to the teacher sponsoring the Future Teachers of America, and $300 to the teacher supervising the Diversified Occupations program. The hourly rate for teachers teaching in summer school was raised from $5 an hour to $6 an hour.

The salary schedule was drawn up by a committee of board members, teachers and administrators. Board members were chairman William Brook, Helen Kopriva and John Blackman. Teachers were William Neumann, Roger Andrews and William Seemann. Superintendent Albert Dittman and Asst. Supt. Warren Polley also participated in the discussions.

In other business, the board hired Jacob Schmitt, Rt. 3, Box 410, Antioch, as bus driver and custodian to replace John Vishi, who had resigned.

The board authorized Supt. Dittman to get figures on the cost of dredging out a small pond north of the football field and track area which supplies natural drainage for the athletic area. The pond has become gradually filled in.

The February meeting of the board was moved from Feb. 15 to Feb. 22 because of the expected absence of Mr. Dittman. Dittman will be attending the American Association of School Administrators convention at Atlantic City. The board also set a special meeting date for Feb. 20 to approve the payroll and bills, and the payroll usually comes out on the 22nd of the month.

The board authorized Supt. Dittman to advertise for bids on a new bus to replace the 1960 GMC. Buses are replaced on a rotation basis, usually when seven years old.

Robert Denman appointed an equipment committee to go over requests for new equipment from the various departments. Committee members are chairman Helen Kopriva, Dr. A. Bucar and Robert Denman.

Richard Burnette

Richard Burnette is the third candidate on the People's Party slate. Dick lives at 917 David St., with his wife, Lillian, son, Gary, 13, and daughter Alice, 12.

Dick was born and grew up in the Antioch area. His parents lived near Emmons School at the time of his birth. They moved to Lake Villa for a while, then back to Antioch. He graduated from Antioch Grade School in 1932 and Antioch High School in 1936.

Dick served in the U. S. Army from 1943 to '46. He's a member of the VFW and a member of a bowling team. "I'm interested in the village," Dick said. "I've attended several board meetings, as a spectator, and I'd like to be a member of the board and have a hand in serving the people of the village."

First day for filing petitions as candidates for village trustee was Monday, Jan. 23. The last day for filing is Feb. 27. Elections will be held April 18.

Killing The Goose

Sometimes tax-supported institutions seem bent on killing the goose that lays the golden eggs.

Private enterprise can hardly hope to compete with a business supported by government funds. Merely eliminating the paying of taxes would give the government enterprise a big edge. In addition, there is no need for such a business to show a profit.

The Taxpayers' Federation of Illinois is advocating legislation to curtail activity along this line in one instance. Southern Illinois University, it seems, plans to open a 10,000 square foot store in the new University Center. The store would stock men's and women's clothes, radios, cosmetics, gifts, sporting goods, jewelry and a variety of other items. In fact, looking over the proposed list, it apparently would be competing with practically every retail store in the area.

The Taxpayers' Federation suggests that the General Assembly should consider legislation which would limit public institutions of higher learning from selling any items not directly related to educational purposes. Otherwise, says the Federation, the campus store should have to operate on the same tax-paying basis as private enterprise.

It hardly seems reasonable to ask taxpayers to foot the bill for supporting a store in addition to paying for educating young people.

An Ombudsman?

It has been suggested that the office of ombudsman be added to the list of government officials. Well worth a try, in our opinion.

The ombudsman takes over for the average citizen when he has a complaint and can't get anywhere with it. Or when he doesn't know where to take his complaint. In short, the ombudsman is the average citizen's liaison between himself and government.

If you're mistreated or short-changed in a store, you go to the complaint department. If you're mistreated in a government agency, there's little you can do except get mad and maybe write a letter to the editor.

Now, if you had an ombudsman, you could go to him, relate your tale of woe, and he could investigate the matter. How effective he would be would depend, of course, on how good a choice for the office the voters had made.

For certain, the ombudsman would be a busy man. We wonder how many candidates there would be for the job.

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

There has been some tongue in cheek discussion about the Lake County Deputy Sheriffs joining a union in order to get more pay and improved working conditions, but it could be kidding on the level as well.

The discussion is particularly pertinent at this time when the Illinois General Assembly is discussing possible legislation which would outlaw strikes by public employees with the loss of fringe benefits as the club over the employees' heads.

The rumble as far as the deputies is concerned is based largely on the feeling the Sheriff's Merit Commission is not going to be effective in getting them more pay and they have found some of the working conditions enforced by Sheriff Harold Scheskie too abrupt a departure from past practices in the department.

Some of the labor union business agents were cutting up; touches the other lunch hour at the Parkway Restaurant and advancing reasons why the deputies should join their particular union.

One thing they did decide on was that former Sheriff Charles Larson would make a fine shop steward because he could talk to "management" better having been on that side of the fence.

Your Congressman Reports....

By Cong. Robert McClory

Shortly before the 90th Congress convened in Washington on January 10th, an authoritative preview of the session was presented by the Senate Majority Leader, Mike Mansfield. This key figure in the Johnson Administration stated that the Congress should undertake "a major re-examination of what we have done in legislation during the last few years." Senator Mansfield also referred to "a number of... overextensions and overruns."

The prospect of a serious review and overhaul of recent legislative enactments is encouraging to this member of Congress and should further raise the hopes of citizens throughout the nation.

A remarkable account of the Genesis of the so-called Great Society legislation was delineated in a recent issue of the Reporter magazine. This article revealed the hasty development of these programs without the benefit of Members of Congress (the nation's constitutional lawmakers), and with only peripheral contact with the executive agencies charged with administering the various programs.

Take, for instance, the 1965 Elementary and Secondary School Education Act with its formulas for distributing federal tax funds for the benefit of public (and private) schools. One basis for this distribution is the number of school district families with incomes of $3,000 or less, according to the 1960 census. Another part of the Act encourages new and oftentimes unwanted programs in order to qualify for federal funds. Some provisions adopted in order to push this law through the last Congress have resulted in much dissatisfaction. For one thing, the law's benefits have not succeeded in reaching those school children who have the greatest need. This defect, coupled with the unhappy experience of bureaucratic domination from Washington, indicates that a fresh and healthy review of this legislation may be undertaken. The entire law will expire on July 1, 1968 unless extended by action of the new Congress. If elementary and secondary school aid from the federal treasury is to be continued, it should be preceded by a careful review of the defects in the existing law. Substantial amendments should accompany an extension of this program.

The so-called Poverty Program with its 10 separate parts is destined for major revision—if not outright repeal. This is not intended to imply that such worthy programs as Headstart and Job Training are to be junked, or that small business or rural loans or loans to needy more faithful lieutenants on the city council are up for reelection and at least one staunch foe, Ald. Eugene McGaughey, a Republican, is also seeking reelection. Mayor Sabonjian may not come out openly for any particular candidate, but Waukegan observers will be watching to see how his men fare. Many people feel the doughty Sabonjian hurt himself politically by leaping into the Senate race, while others opine he is stronger than ever and that he will emerge from the city race with a more agreeable council than ever before.

Sabonjian's present term does not expire until 1969 so he can still take a crack at a state office in 1968 and have a year to mend his local fences if he falls short.

Newport Supervisor LeRoy Fritz may be in for some stiff opposition in his bid for reelection from Hollis LeRoy Austin of Skokie Highway.

Austin has been getting around the township calling on neighbors to sound out the sentiment of the voters and could be expected to give Supervisor Fritz a real battle.

Some indication of the effect his recent write-in campaign for U. S. Senator had on the political fortunes of Waukegan Mayor Robert Sabonjian may be revealed in the up-coming municipal elections. Several of his

Miss Mabel Brogan and Russell Barnstable formed a partnership to open a new store in Antioch.

The engagement of Miss Joan Miller and Ted Larson was announced.

Mayor James McMillen announced that he would not run for the office of Mayor again. Merrill Cunningham, a trustee, announced his candidacy for the post.

Honest Abe Days in Antioch was announced by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce scheduled for Feb. 11 and 12, with bargains galore.

Thirty-two Antioch High school students completed the first driver's training course offered at the High School and passed their drivers test.

Do you sometimes have the feeling that "Brave New World" was not so far off the mark as we might have thought?

Dger are getting to be a common sight in this area. Several have been killed by cars on Route 173 west of Channel Lake. Mrs. George Eckert of Indian Point reports seeing a deer near her home just at dusk. She saw a moving object on the ice covering the lake near her home, turned on a yard light to get a better look, and saw the deer. The light frightened the deer away.

students will be discontinued. What is meant is that the Office of Economic Opportunity (the Poverty Agency) may be discontinued—and the worthwhile parts of the program will be salvaged by transferring their administration to existing agencies, i.e. Headstart would be transferred to the Office of Education, Job Training to the Department of Labor, etc.

Other enactments which expire this year and which will come in for close scrutiny by the Congress are: Highway Beautification, Rent Supplements, Teacher Corps, Foreign-Aid-and-Higher-Education.

Even before the last Congress adjourned Health, Education and Welfare Under Secretary Wilbur Cohen observed that the federal government was dumping dollars faster than the schools could absorb the money. He warned of "wasted funds," and "inadequately planned expenditures and projects."

The "major re-examination" that Senator Mansfield has recommended should be the major undertaking of the 90th Congress.

As It Happens —

By W. J. Murphy

In Action

The Legislative wheels of the House are now rolling, as the first of many hundreds of Bills have reached third reading and now pass from the House to the Senate for action.

House Slower

Putting the House into operation is more complicated than getting the Senate rolling because the House with 177 members and the traditional procedures take time, plus the hook-up of the 177 microphones that must be connected, along with the electronic voting switches. This all must wait until the new Speaker is elected and the members get their seats which are selected by the members based on Seniority.

First Cash Outlay

The first emergency appropriation bill to survive the Legislative process was a Bill appropriating several million dollars to pay Viet Nam Veterans their bonus. There were no dissenting votes! "Monkey Shines"

The Republican Leadership of the Senate and the House have introduced Legislation to allow a diversion of gas tax in Cook County for the high sounding purpose of aiding the Circuit Court and other departments in matters relating to traffic and highways.

In truth it is a bill to give Richard Ogilvie (County Board President) enough money to pay the salaries of 400 some bailiffs (patronage jobs) that he has taken over from the Chicago City Council and now doesn't know how he is to pay them.

It is suspected in some circles that Boss Daly and Boss Ogilvie have made a convenient "little deal" behind the scenes, starting with Daly's refusal to slate Seymour Simon (then County Board President) for reelection. Instead he put up affable Harry Semrow who was considered easy to defeat and hence almost assured Ogilvie of election as President of "Ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock, his work is perfect; for all the County Board. In return the other Richard (Ogilvie) has now slated John Waner (a real patsy) against Daly for Mayor of Chicago. This practically hands the Mayorship to his Honor (Daly) without a contest. It is being rumored that the deal even goes further and that Boss Daly will allow Governor Kerner to seek a third term (which has never been successful in Illinois) and pull the rug out from under him by "sitting on his hands" hence giving the Governorship to brother Richard Ogilvie who in turn will give Boss Richard Daly all his desired Legislation that he cannot now come close to getting even with a Democrat Governor because of the Republican dominated House and in particular the Senate which figures on remaining Republican in the foreseeable future. Neat deal eh! What?

Proof of the Pudding

There is a small hard core of downstate Republicans that are watching this rumored marriage between the two "Boss Richards". This hard core can defeat Ogilvie's bid for diversion of gas tax to his use if the Democrats also oppose it. If the Democrats vote to give this money, to what should be normally their "arch enemy" Ogilvie then we will know beyond any doubt that this "off color" deal has actually been made. This hard core of Republicans, headed by the Hon. John Lewis of Marshall (former Speaker of the House), has demanded that a committee of the Whole House hear this Bill and that Ogilvie appear in person for questioning. The Republicans prior to now have always been against any gas tax diversions; and indeed why should this be allowed for Cook County and not the rest of the State?

The committee hearing is set for February 1st. It should be interesting when it happens, and I will report to you AS IT HAPPENS!

AFS Looks For Home For Student

Mrs. Leslie Sorensen, president of the Antioch chapter of the American Field Service, states that several families have expressed interest in applying for Antioch's next year's foreign exchange student. Interest seems to inspire interest, so A.F.S. hopes that many more families will wish to open their homes to a young person from another country.

No actual applications have been filled out as yet, and the New York office has stated that February 15 is the deadline. Rev. and Mrs. Harold Nelson from Lindenhurst, Mrs. Charles Maples from Antioch, and Larry Williams from Round Lake are on the "home-finding" committee. The last two members are teachers at A.C.H.S. The committee hopes to have several applications to choose from.

Mrs. Robert Jensen, coordinator between the adult and high school A.F.S. activities and the community, and Gary Strahan, president of the student A.F.S., announce that an interesting program is being planned to be presented at the Deluxe Dessert Buffet on February 14 at the A.C.H.S. cafeteria at 7 p.m. Diana Maria Stagg, Antioch's exchange student, has agreed to play her guitar and sing several Spanish songs, and she will tell about her life in Ecuador.

It is hoped that letters from our two previous foreign exchange students will arrive in time to be read. The foreign exchange parents will also be present to say a few words. The A.F.S. program will be explained and questions answered. As a special attraction, the A.C.H.S. stage band and swing choir will present a few numbers.

Reservations for the Deluxe Dessert Buffet should be made by calling Mrs. Roy Nelson, finance chairman, (395-1807) or Mrs. Robert Jensen (395-0539) by February 10. The entire chapter of A.F.S. urges all interested individuals, members of business and community organizations to attend this special event in honor of Antioch Community High School's foreign exchange student, Diana Maria Stagg.

A mind—open to the different life and culture the student will bring with him, open to accepting him for his differences and not for his similarities, and a share of laughter and gaiety to shrink the problems which may come up and to strengthen the bonds of communication.

Plan New Educational Center For Illinois Bell

Establishment of a new Bell System Center for Technical Education, to be located near Lisle, was announced today by James W. Cook, president of Illinois Bell Telephone.

The Center, Cook said, is the newest development in Bell's program of continuing education for employees on scientific and technical assignments. Scheduled to begin operation this fall, the center will be attended by engineers from associated telephone companies throughout the country.

"We are delighted," Cook said, "to have the center in Illinois. Among the factors in the decision to establish the center in the Chicago area are its central location within the country and its growing importance in the field of scientific and technical education. Among the center's Bell System neighbors with which it will be working most closely is the recently completed Indian Hill Laboratory of Bell Telephone Laboratories near Naperville."

Other similar Bell System-sponsored activities include a communications engineering course at Illinois Institute of Technology in Chicago; a graduate program for Bell Telephone Laboratories people in cooperation with 28 universities throughout the country; a data communications training school at Cooperstown, N. Y., and an advanced training course for Western Electric engineers in New York City and Princeton, N. J.

The Lisle center's building complex will include dormitory and dining facilities, administrative offices, classrooms, laboratories and work areas. At the outset, the school will be able to accommodate as many as 150 engineer students at one time; present plans call for an ultimate capacity of 250.

Ragnar Benson, Inc., Chicago, will engineer and erect the buildings. The AT&T Company will direct academic operations of the center.

Charles J. Sener, Chicago, will act as director of the center for the AT&T Company. He has been a division engineering manager for Illinois Bell Telephone. His staff will include two "deans," a teaching staff of 16, to be recruited principally from Bell System engineering organizations, and administrative assistants. The school will be operated on a year-round basis; individual courses will vary from one to 16 weeks in length.

Sener explained that the center will undertake a mission unique in the field of continuing engineering education. Within the framework of as many as four or five curricula, the center will provide "tailor-made instructions and assistance for all employee levels of Bell System engineering organizations."

"One of our major assignments," he said, "will be to help the newly employed engineering graduate become effective in communications technology. The engineering schools of today are fitting students with a very high order of theoretical and technical knowledge; our job will be to help the newcomer couple this background with the specific problems of our business."

"Other courses are being tailored to assist our people who have specialized assignments in those fields in which scientific advances have been so swift. For example, the development of solid state devices, which are being employed in the highly sophisticated systems of integrated circuitry, is bringing about a revolution in telephony. The very volume of new information, particularly in electronics, makes it virtually impossible for the working engineer to keep up with these new developments on a day-to-day basis."

"For our engineering administrative people who have scant opportunity for research and study, there will be seminar courses to refresh and update their understanding of the onrushing advances in the communications arts."

"Another of our more important assignments will be the training of instructors who will take continuing education programs into the individual telephone companies; they will be using training materials developed in our Lisle center."

"The overall purpose of the entire undertaking is, of course, simply to help telephone people to continue to plan, build and operate for our customers the best telephone service in the world," Sener said.

Conference To Deal With Needs Of Retarded

Bishop Thomas M. Pryor, Rock River Conference, Methodist Church, will be the keynote speaker at an all-day conference February 4, jointly sponsored by Dixon State School and the Rock River Conference Board of Hospitals and Homes of the Methodist Church.

Purpose of the session will be to assist pastors and laymen in providing pastoral counseling and programs for the retarded in the local churches.

In addition to representatives from Methodist Churches in Northern Illinois, delegates will be invited from other religious bodies in the state.

Co-chairmen for the program are Rev. Jesse H. Roberts, pastor of Embury Methodist Church, Freeport, and Richard Battles, health educator.

Superintendent David Edelson has said the institution will provide similar seminars for other church groups wishing such a presentation.

"Bart" Brings Chills To Northern Illinois

"Cold Spell Bart," the second cold wave to chill northern Illinois this heating season, arrived late Monday night, January 16. "Bart," considerably more blustery than his predecessor, Abner, planned an indefinite stay.

Northern Illinois Gas Company, which describes a cold spell as any period of 48 hours or more in which temperatures stay below 20 degrees, reports that while "Bart" was sending temperatures plummeting, he was also sending natural gas sendouts soaring.

From noon Tuesday to noon Wednesday, NI-Gas distributed an all-time high of 1.9 billion cubic feet of natural gas to its 945,000 customers. Approximately half of this amount came from the utility's underground storage facilities.

NI-Gas, which identifies each cold spell with a man's name, has a waiting list extending through the "Z's," but no one—not even NI-Gas—wants to see Zachariah this winter.

Public Lecture At Christian Science Church

"How Independent Can You Be?" is the title of a public lecture coming here Saturday, January 28th, by Thomas O. Poyser, C. S. It's a Christian Science lecture exploring in depth the spiritual basis of independence.

The event is being sponsored by First Church of Christ, Scientist and takes place at 9:00 p.m. in the Church Edifice at Route 173 at Harden St. in Antioch. Admission is free.

Mr. Poyser resigned as manager of a business firm in Dallas, Texas, in 1952 to devote full time to the Christian Science healing practice. Antioch S & L Expects Easing Of Tight Money

An increase in savings flows and some improvement in the supply of home mortgage credit likely is ahead for 1967, the annual report of the Antioch Savings & Loan Association suggested today.

The report, issued by Dr. John C. Vermeren, President, also disclosed that savings balances held by the Association amounted to $11,083,654 at the end of 1966 as compared to $9,774,626 at the close of the preceding year.

Dr. Vermeren noted that in the face of the stepped-up savings competition, the year-to-year change in savings balances was satisfactory. The report also revealed that dividends totaling $450,599 were paid to account-holders of the Antioch Association during 1966. During the year the Association invested $1,765,000 in mortgage loans and the total of the loans at the close of the year amounted to $10,222,170.

The report, looking ahead to 1967 said there was no doubt that the "tight money" year of 1966 presented challenges for the savings and loan business and the real estate and housing industry. Dr. Vermeren continued:

"As we move into 1967, however, the picture is brighter. In recent months, savings inflows have begun to pick up slightly, interest rates seemed to reach their peak, and there seems to be a light settling down in the economy."

"Barring escalation of the war in Viet Nam and further increases in non-military spending by the federal government, there is reason to hope for some easing of the 'tight money' conditions of the past year. If this assumption is realized, then 1967 should mean an increase in the flow of savings dollars into Antioch Savings & Loan Association and some improvement in the flow of home mortgage funds."

"The impact of this expected improvement, however, will be gradual. Housing starts, which have been severely curtailed by lack of mortgage lending funds, will probably drop even more during the early part of the year. However, with the expected increase in the flow of savings we expect that mortgage lending during 1967 will show a considerable increase over what we were able to channel into the housing market during the past year."

"All in all, we expect 1967 to be another year of progress and satisfactory development for the Antioch Savings & Loan Association."

American Legion Auxiliary News

By Del Jahneke
The 10th District American Legion Auxiliary Executive Board Meeting will be held on Tuesday, January 31st, at the Lake Forest Legion Home, at 8:00 p.m., with Mrs. Herbert Gleason, Libertyville, District Director, as the presiding officer. Mrs. Ray Rathmann, District Treasurer, and Mrs. Edward Jahneke, District Publicity-Radio-TV Chairman, will be attending this meeting.

Mrs. William Schultz, North Chicago, District Membership Chairman, announces that the 10th District Auxiliary has 87% of their membership. Auxiliary Units that have already attained their goal of 100% membership are: Antioch—Chairman, Mrs. Bernard Stadick; Lake Villa—Mrs. Clarence Perkins; Lake Zurich—Mrs. Gilbert Sehlman; Libertyville—Mrs. Delmar Ahrens; Highwood—Mrs. Charles Good-rode; Vernon—Mrs. Carl Wilkins; Waukegan No. 281—Mrs. Joseph Hogue; and Winthrop Harbor—Mrs. Harold Jasper. Any Unit reaching 100% membership by Jan. 31, will receive a citation from the National President.

Many people wonder why the American Legion and its Auxiliary stress membership. Through their large membership, they are thus enabled to carry to completion their many fine programs. The American Legion and the Auxiliary are also limited in obtaining membership, since a person must be eligible in order to be enrolled. To be eligible for membership in the American Legion Auxiliary, a woman must be: 1—either the wife, mother, daughter or sister of an American Legionnaire; 2—the wife, mother, daughter or sister of a veteran who died in service during World War I, World War II, the Korean Conflict, or the Vietnam War—hence, a gold star member; 3—a wife, mother, daughter or sister of a man who has since died, after having served during any of the four wars. This man need not have been a member of the American Legion; 4—An ex-service woman of any of the four wars; and 5—eligibility requirements of Vietnam members are to be either wife, mother, daughter or sister of a Legionnaire, who has served on or after August 5, 1964, to the present time.

The American Legion Auxiliary Flag will be hand-sewn by the 2nd Division President, Mrs. Howard Clark, Sycamore, Ill., to be presented to the winning district, who is 100% in membership, on or before April 7th. Right now, the 10th District Auxiliary is leading the 2nd Division. Women who are interested and eligible to be a member of the American Legion Auxiliary are cordially invited to join this organization.

Sequoits Chalk Up 8th Conf. Victory

The Antioch Sequoits extended their winning streak to eight games in conference play last Friday night as they beat Lake Zurich 77 to 71.

This Friday, the Sequoits will have to defeat Lake Forest to hold on to their one-game lead. The game will be played at the Antioch gym, with the sophomore bout starting at 7 p.m.

Antioch banded Lake Forest their only loss of the season at Lake Forest Dec. 9, winning that one 65-63. Both teams are expected to be fired up for Friday's crucial bout, and it could well be one of the best games of the season.

The Lake Zurich team, bent on an upset, lead in the early stages of the game, 14 to 9, and still lead 14 to 13 at the end of the first quarter. During the last two minutes of the first quarter, the Sequoits scored 14 straight points to break up

Lake Zurich's zone defense. In the last three minutes of the second quarter the Sequoits opened up a 12-point lead, but with Walls, Zeman and Empfield in foul trouble the lead at half time was only 8 points. Walls and Zeman had four fouls at the half and Empfield 3.

With some adjustments in defense and the real good job by the reserves, Bill Smith, Joel Strahan and Bill Sheldon, the Sequoits played Lake Zurich on even terms till the regulars came back in to finish out the game.

Coach Roger Andrews had words of praise for his reserve players (see separate article). Every man on the bench has been called on this season and contributed something to the team's championship drive.

Bruce Empfield tied the school rebounding record for one game with 24 in the Lake Zurich game. Other holders of record for one game are Vic Rogers and John Hallwas. Walls, Smith and Strahan also helped considerably on the boards. Whitson lead the scoring with 22, Empfield had 18, Walls 13 and Strahan 11.

Jerry Whitson, steady as time, rolls on with one good game after another. "What an inspiration to young boys this boy is," Andrews commented. "A leader, a worker, with hustle and desire."

Sophs Beat Lake Zurich

The Antioch Sophomore basketball squad defeated Lake Zurich Friday night 62 to 40.

The game was close during the first quarter, which ended 9 to 9. Using a pressing man-to-man defense in the second and third quarters, the sophomores moved ahead 32 to 22 at the half, and 51 to 28 by the end of three quarters. The reserves played the last quarter.

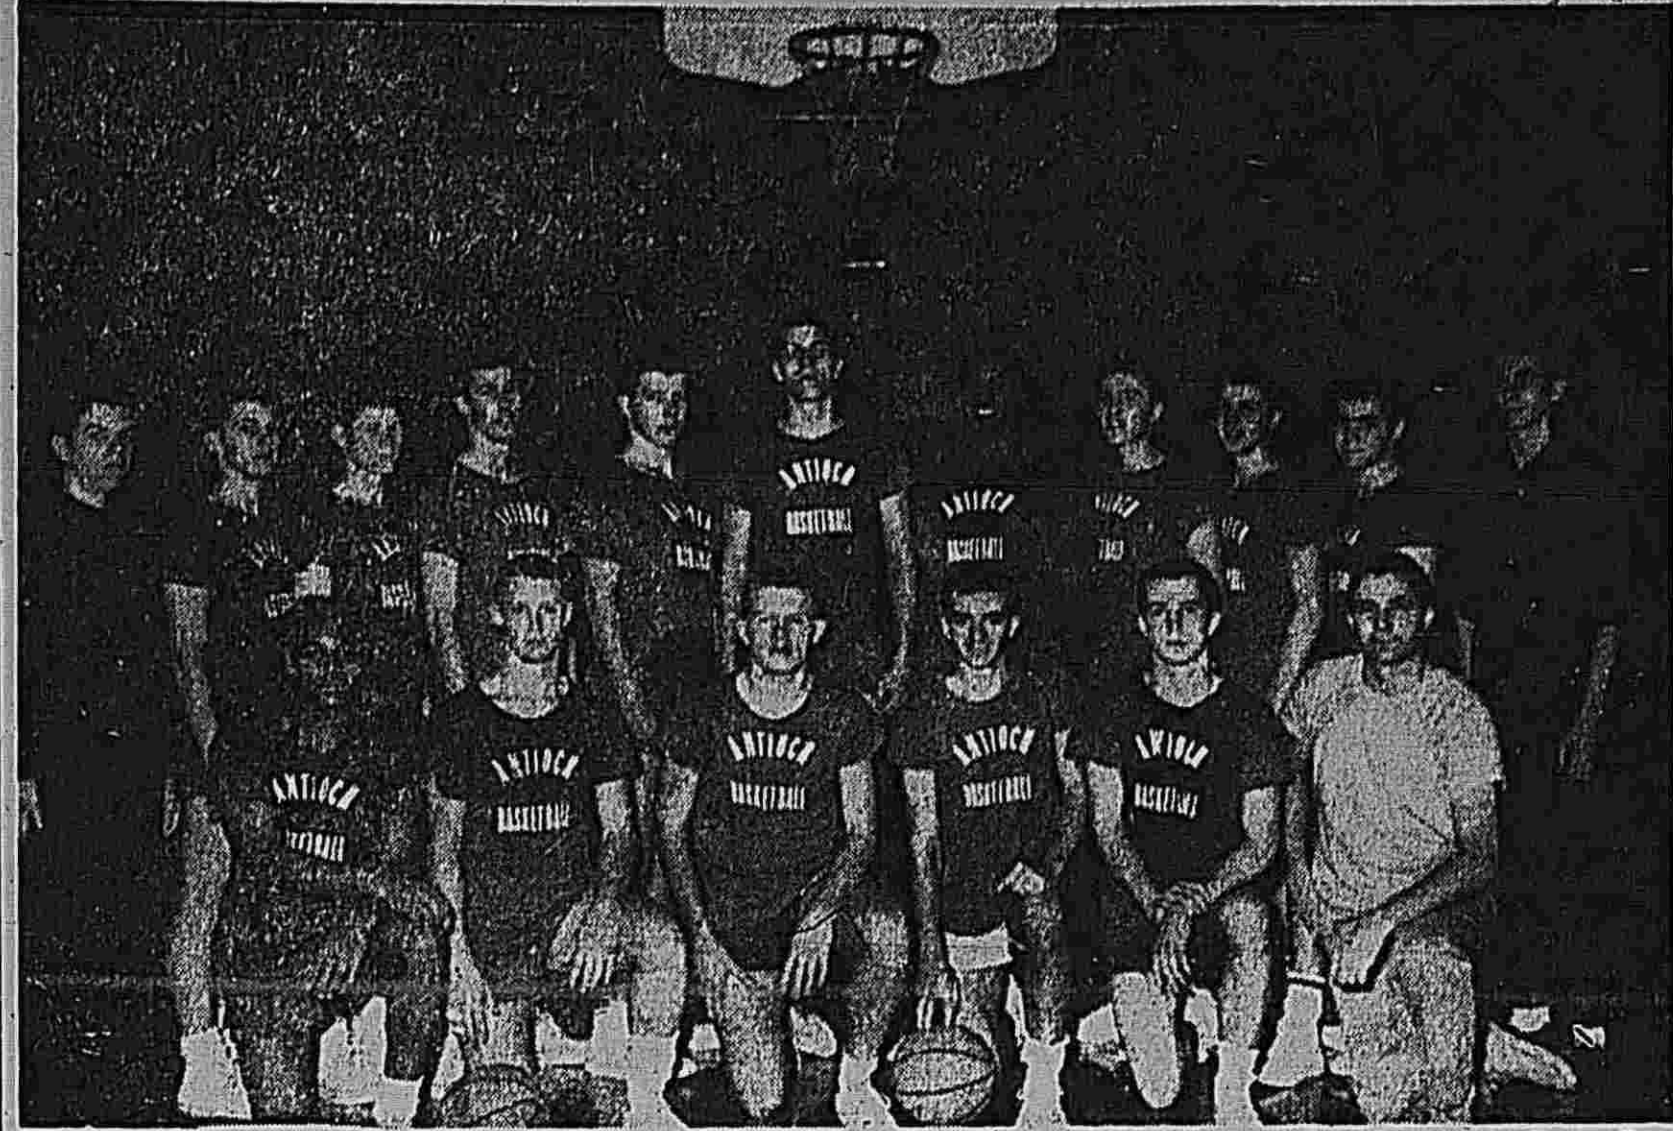

The 23 points scored by the boys in the second quarter was their highest score for a quarter this season.

Polar Bear Shoot Success

An army of shot-gunners, loaded for bear, showed up at the McHenry Sportsmen's Club Polar Bear Prize Shoot, but nary a bear put in an appearance.

Trap officials were heard mumbling something about pea soup weather keeping them in Alaska, so the shooters spent the day blasting holes in the fog, while they went about the serious business of putting a tremendous hole in a big stock of steaks, chickens, and other goodies that make a blunder-buss banger happy.

The dense fog that prevailed all day long was a great equalizer, putting the less proficient shooters on a more equal footing with the dead-eye Dicks, and the resultant scores made it appear they were all amateurs. However, almost every shooter carried home a prize, or more, and satisfaction was the order of the day.

With the Club's "Add-Up Points" Shoot all set for Sunday, January 29, they vowed to come back and make up for all the missed targets, and to carry home more of those tender aged JoPat steaks and chickens which they have come to savor so highly.

Shooting will start at 11 a.m. and continue until dark. There will be 6, 4, 3, and 2-prize White Bird Shoots, Protection, Annie Oakley, and High Score contests, and practice shoots.

Hot refreshments, shells and warm viewing will be on tap in the club house, located on the west side of Pistakee Bay.

The Club's February Shooting schedule was posted today, as follows:

Saturday, Feb. 4—Practice shooting—1 to 4 p.m.

Saturday, Feb. 11—Practice shooting—1 to 4 p.m.

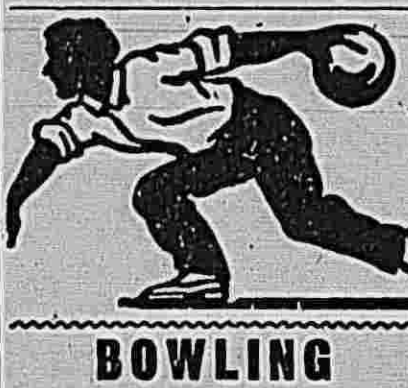

Sunday, Feb. 12—Prize Shoot—11 a.m. 'til dark.

A Club Sees Iowa Game

Thirty boys from the Antioch High School "A" Club, including the entire basketball team, traveled to Northwestern last week end to see the Iowa cage team tangle with Northwestern.

Their hope, of course, was that they'd see their former schoolmate, big Vic Rogers, in action in college ball. They were disappointed on that score, but did get to talk to Vic a few minutes.

Vic's a sophomore, and competition for a spot on the team is fierce. Maybe later this year, or next year, Antioch fans will get to see our former player in college action.

Coach Roger Andrews, who accompanied the boys, reports that a good many Antioch fans were at the game. Pres Reckers, Elroy Anderson and Bill Seemann, to name a few.

Telegram announcing Accreditation of the Nursing Service of the Lake County Health Department is shared by Dr. John J. Ring, Acting Director of the Health Department, Mrs. William Stover, Board Member of Community Nursing Service, Miss Robah Kellogg, Director of Nursing, Miss Elaine Sell, Nursing Supervisor, West Lake County and Miss Homm, Nursing Supervisor, East Lake County of the Health Department Staff.

Health Dept. Honored By Preliminary Accreditation

High honor was given the Lake County Health Department this week with the announcement that its Nursing Service had been granted National "Preliminary Accreditation." The announcement to the Lake County Health Department marks the first such honor in the State of Illinois.

The Board of Review granting accreditation is appointed by the American Public Health Association and the National League for Nursing. Granting of Full Accreditation is by approval after a team visit from the two National Organizations in 1969.

National Accreditation of health agencies in the past has been limited to the joint Accreditation of Hospitals by the American Hospital Assn. and the American Medical Assn. Accreditation of Nursing Homes has begun recently and the availability of Accreditation of Community Nursing Services was initiated in 1966.

Nursing services available to all Lake County citizens through the Health Department include home services for premature infants; infant and pre-school child health supervision—at home and in child health centers; care for handicapped children and adults; Maternal health care; many chronic illness services, such as to the 300 patients registered with the Rheumatic Fever Prophylaxis program; services to the mentally retarded and their families; mental health services and communicable disease control activities.

The 22 Nursing Homes and Homes for the Aged in Lake County receive consultation from Nursing and Environmental Health Divisions throughout the year as is also provided to some 43 day care centers and Nursery schools. By contract with Community Nursing Service nearly 350 visits are made each month to give nursing care — treatments, medications, rehabilitation, etc.—to the sick in their homes under the order of private physicians.

Some 50 public and private schools in Lake County, with an enrollment of 20,000 children secure school nursing service from the department with special services — hearing and vision screening; otology clinic; communicable disease consultation, etc.—being extended to other schools in the county. Nursing students from Illinois Wesleyan University, Marquette University, North Park College, St. Therese Hospital School of Nursing, and the Waukegan Township High School Practical Nurse Program have been provided observation experiences in Public Health Nursing with the department staff during the past year.

Adventurers Work On Projects

Monthly work meetings were held by several groups of the Antioch Adventurers. The group of girls under Mrs. Douglas Dodd's supervision held their cooking meeting Friday, Jan. 13. The girls baked coffee cake. Mrs. John Teresi's group baked cookies.

Sewing groups met at the homes of Mrs. Andre Meuter, Mrs. Dan Maras, Mrs. Ernest January and Mrs. Jack Bodin. The girls started to work on garments which they are to make for this year.

Mrs. Len Lagerstrom held her mosaics meeting Jan. 17. Her group worked on trivets for their project.

Itself. Different versions of the basic plot have appeared over the years. In 1944 Jean Anouilh refused to translate older plays entitled "Antigone." Retaining much of the basic plot and most of the characters, he freely used these materials for his interpretation.

This interpretation is a modern one. No togas and stone columns appear on stage. Evening dresses, dinner jackets, and raised platforms are used. One actor has replaced the Chorus. Gambling and smoking appear in the script. Although names and incidents are somewhat detached from ordinary life in our time, the detachment has a purpose; we can see ourselves better because of this detachment.

Furthermore, Anouilh has used many modern techniques to assure his audience of a fresh, continually stimulating production. And the story itself should not be considered a relic for the graveyard. As Lewis Galanter, the translator of the French script has written, "Each age is entitled to its own Antigone."

These are the words of the director, Donald Beverly, as he discusses the upcoming Palette, Masque and Lyre production, "Antigone," to be presented February 10, 11, 17 and 18 at the PM&L Theatre on Main St. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

In addition to the play, the audience is invited to remain for coffee, cookies, and conversation with the cast and director after the play. This play invites discussion, and PM&L is anxious that the community might have a chance to become better acquainted with its actors and members.

Ticket reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Vivian Mapiothorpe (395-3613) or may be purchased at the box office.

WE GOOFED

PM&L announces that an error on dates for "Antigone" has been made. The correct dates for the production are February 10, 11, 17, and 18 at 8:30 p.m. as is printed on the season ticket.

Children Adopt Soldier
Sixth grade students in Miss Agnes Kramer's class at B. J. Hooper School, adopted Pvt. William Blood of Waukegan. He is serving with a field group in Da-Nang. Bill was raised by his mother and father, and does not receive much mail or gifts, so appreciated it when the youngsters "adopted" him. At Christmas time they collected so many toys, pre-sweetened Kool-aids, dried soups, canned foods, coffee cans of home baked cookies and other goodies that several boxes had to be made up. Mrs. Charles Dolson, room mother, received the name of Blood from Mrs. Gwen Muschewski, the mother of a boy the Navy Wives have adopted.

McCleods in California
Willis and Anna McCleod of Sand Lake, Lake Villa, are visiting their daughter and several grandchildren in San Jose, Calif. They visited with their newly married grand-daughter, Linda, and her husband, Pvt. Sam Gallu in Fort Sill, Okla., for a little while on their way west.

Grandson

Edward Slavik, has been in the army a year and a half and has been serving in Vietnam for the past three months. He expects to be home the end of March.

The Slaviks lived in Venetian Village before Edward went into the service. Donna is living with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph LeDain at 309 Barron, Grayslake, until her husband comes home.
